Sixteenth Annual.

MADE BY VISITORS

Mr. Sewali Responds for President McKinley-Addresses By Of-1 ficers of the First.

The sixteenth anniversary camp fire of George W. De Long Post, G. A. R., which took place at Little Britain last night will long be remembered by ali who attended. It was certainly a most successful and pleasant affair. Owing to a delay in the arrival of some of the speakers it was 8:30 when the camp fire was lighted. At that time the guests were invited upon the lawn makai of the nouse. Electric lamps furnished light. Chairs were arranged on two sides of the lawn, and in the center was a table upon which the spread was placed.

Post Commander L. L. LaPierre welcomed the guests. He referred to the camp fire as the sixteenth since the organization of the Post and the first to the toast "The ladies," paying a under the American flag in Hawaii. All present were then invited to the spread. G. A. R. Veterans waited upon the ladies and other visitors. Cold turkey, chicken, pork and beans, and coffee were served. The feast over, the toast "The President of the United States" was proposed by Commander LaPierre and Minister Sewall responded.

'So good a comrade as the President of the United States has a right to be heard from on an occasion like this," said the Minister. "The toast is the very highest that can be given, especially before the G. A. R. To toast the present President is to toast the G. A. R. The toast has great significance now with you. In it you toast your President to whom you now owe your undivided allegiance. This is the first time your fire has been lighted on American soil and under American skies in Hawaii. You owe this to the President of the United States. His life has been spent in setting questions as he met them, not for his own time only, but, when it could be done honorably, for eternity. He took up wards of some three thousand people your question at the beginning of his and I was extremely nervous. "Our Army" was responded to by Capt. Hitchcock, of the First New Prince and Princess of Wales three "The men who went over the York. bill at San Juan and marched into Manila were worthy successors of the fathers of 1861," affirmed the speaker. "I do not believe it is natural for a man born under the Stars and Stripes to be a coward. At San Juan the American soldiers did not require of-ficers to lead them. In conclusion I would say that I have often wished Geo. De Long Post G. A. R. Has in this war that I had fought on some vessel, rather than to have fought so hard with the army in Honolulu."

Col. Gilbert F. Little, of Hilo. responded to the toast "The G. A. R." He said he was proud to be a member of the G. A. R. and proud to extend a hand to the young soldiers now in the service of the country. The inspiration of the rebellion had made heroes of the American people. The G. A. R. favored keeping all the territory the United States had acquired in the war.

equipped and cared for. Chaplain Schwartz, of the First New York, responded in a graceful manner high tribute to the ladies of the Red Cross and mentioning the present work of the ladies of Honolulu at the two Park Camps.

Colonel De la Vergne extended a special welcome from the Post to the New Yorkers, engineers and staff officers present.

The affair closed with singing Tenting Tonight" and "Marching thro' Georgia" and the benediction by Rev. G. L. Pearson.

Mr. Hertz was born in San Francisco, and his first public essay was at the Grand Opera House. "It was not," said Mr. Hertz, "a very great success. There was a tremendous audience, upever, I was not daunted, and made another appearance three or four weeks wonderful success. Ever since then I have been performing mostly in London. I have appeared before the times; I have a decoration from the Queen; and the Legion of Honor from the late President Carnot, for a performance given in Paris for a charitable institution. I have also given performances before the Emperor of Germany, before the late Crown Prince of Austria, and before the mad King Ludwick of Bavaria, he being the only occupant of the theater." Mr. Hertz left London two years ago for a tour 'round the world, and Bombay, which he reached at the time made his way to Yokohama via ports, being quarantined at Nagasaki.

Central Committee Meets to Prepare Memorial.

PRINCIPAL POINTS OF DOCUMENT

Course of Cabinet Impelled Action The Governorship-American Shipping for the Flag.

(From Thursday's Daily)

The American Union Party, the only political organization of annexationists in Honolulu, has come out of its shell to sing, after a silence uninterrupted since the endorsement of American Special Agent Sewall for the Governorship.

A meeting of the Central Committee of the A. U. P. was held last evening and a memorial to the Commission was framed. The document will be placed in order and submitted probably tomorrow.

The draft that was submitted to the meeting last evening had two principal points. The first was that the party had not been consulted by the Executive at any time in any way concerning the future as it might be affected by communication with the Commission and for this reason presented the memorial.

The second heavy paragraph in the outline presented to the delegates was the expression of opinion that American shipping laws should be extended to the new territory at once.

There is asked for in the memorial "a liberal form of territorial government," with such restrictions, limitations, etc., as the conditions appear to

On the question of the franchise the committee gives utterance in favor of a "liberal suffrage."

The committee favors the national policies concerning construction of the Nicaraguan canal and a cable from the Mainland to Hawaii. It is urged that American tariff laws be extended to Hawali without delay.

It was 10:30 when the Central Committee adjourned. Its session opened at 8 p. m. In the absence of Chairman Kennedy, Geo. W. Smith presided. W. R. Sims is the secretary and was in his place. Eleven members of the committee were present altogether.

Discussion was earnest and not at all brief on several questions. The first debate was on mention of the Cabinet. There were those who thought the Executive should not figure in the memorial. Some of the members were in favor of stating specifically an opinion on the suffrage. Again there was a slight division on taking issue with John K. Sumner, a non compus mentis, the Chamber of Commerce on the matter of shipping interest.

In the ending of the memorial the for defendant. Central Committee asks that there be named for first Governor of Hawaii a man who has not been identified with The principal case up was that of F.

The meeting of the committee was good natured in every way and practical unanimous sentiment prevailed on most of the matters, though the difference on a couple of points was wide and fixed.

It has been openly stated that the Central Committee had no intention of addressing the Commission until it became convinced that the Cabinet would not consult the party. It is very evident, too, that the Governorship, for which American Special Agent Sewall has already been endorsed by the Central Committee, is still a leading and very carefully nurtured consideration.

Schick, the representative of the society, and his report has been made.

There have been a great many theories about the place of the crucifixion and the tomb. It has been claimed that the Mosque of Omar and not the Church of the Holy Sepulchre was erected over the spot where the cross stood. Dr. Schick, in his paper says:

One of the chief points to ascertain about Church of the Holy Sepulchre is whether it actually stands on the rock of Calvary. Some have claimed the apparent rock foundation was an imitation. To satisfy doubts on this point I have made a special resparch. In the chapel of Adam, in a closed recess I found that genuine rock can be seen.

A WARNING FROM HONOLULU.

Honolulu, H. I., Aug. 25th, 1898. To all Pythian Brethren, Greeting; The annexation of these Islands by the United States has caused many of our brethren to project attempts to better their condition or to find employment in what they consider a new country.

Such we consider it our duty to warn and to speak to in plain terms.

The social and business communities of these Islands were old and well established before the rush to Califor-

This is in no sense a new country. The only opportunity here is for the man of large capital.

There is no employment here for mechanics of any kind or for unskilled labor. Many men of ability, of good habits and first class recommendations are now here practically stranded. There were idle men in Honolulu before the American flag replaced the Hawailan flag. All lines of small business are fully filled and in most cases over-crowded. Do not come here unless you have the assurance in advance of steady employment or have the capital to engage in land development enterprises requiring large means.

We spread this positive advice because we wish to save brethren disappointment and distress. We state the facts, as in more than honor bound and trust sincerely that this circular will accomplish its mission.

AT A MUSICALE

Fernhurt Recital Introducing Miss Maud Kinney.

Violin and Plano Solos-Charmed All Her Hearers-The Singing. Mrs. Kinney's Return.

(From Wednesday's Daily.) Violin-Sonate, A Major......Handel Solveig's Song ......Grieg Song ..... Selected Mrs. Grace Richards-Woodward. Piano—Impromtu Fantasie ....Chopin March of the Dwarfs .... Grieg Violin—Berceuse ............ Godard ..... Selected Mrs. Grace Richards-Woodward. Piano-Nachtstuck ..... Schumann

Wiolin-Die Sehnsucht .... Beethoven

Berceuse Slave ... Neruda Piano—La Regata Veneziana . Liszt Violin and plano numbers by Miss Mand Kinney. The above was the program for the musicale given last evening at Fernhurst, the King street home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. B. Atherton. As shown, the recital was by Miss Maud Kinney, assisted by Mrs. Grace Richards-Woodward. The planist for Miss Kinney's violin solos was her mother, Mrs. Selma Kinney, and the accompanist for the vocalist was her brother, Protessor Theo. Richards. The affair was a notable musical feast, with a brilliant company. Guests numbered about 100 and included those people of the city known to have a fondness for and appreciation of music of the highest order. The spacious tropical grounds of Fernhurst were illuminated with Japanese lanterns of red, white and blue and the beautiful home of the Atherton's was in party dress, with rare plants and flowers, the greens of the country and the selections of foreign travel everywhere. The performers of the evening appeared in the large double parlor. This room and the dining lanal were filled with chairs for the guests. Many people prominent in society were in attendance. All were most delightfully entertained.

It was difficult for even the very best of critics who listened attentively to each number to say which was best. It was agreed that Miss Kinney was a young lady possessing the highest order of talent and one who had profited greatly by the advantage of in-struction under the best masters of Europe. Miss Kinney is confident, has delicate touch and expressive shading with the violin, but she seems almost inspired in interpretation at the piano.

Richards-Woodward, whose vocal ability has long since received acknowledgement here, was even more pleasing than ever. It was commented that some of her notes had been im-proved by her trip and study abroad.

There were two encores during the evening, one for the vocalist and one for the young mistress of the instruments. Mrs. Jos. B. Atherton desired especially to present Miss Kinney to the Kinney is the widow of an Island man who died at Wailuku many years ago. He was a school teacher. Mrs. Kinney is a musician and linguist. For about seventeen years she has been in Denmark, Norway and Sweden. Mrs. Kinney is now teacher of French and German in the Honolulu High school. She is an accomplished musician, being an especially finished plano player. It was in Europe that the musical bent of Miss Maud Kinney was given encouragement and the advantage of the best and most persistent cultivation by the most famous instructors. Miss Kinney, who is but seventeen, seems slight and girlish till she begins to produce music either with the violin or upon the piano. Then it is the music that holds attention. There is wonder and admiration at the ease with which the most difficult passages are presented. A prother of Miss Kinney aged eighteen, is taking a post grad-uate course at the University of California. The family is one of aptitude. The program was less than an hour in length, there being no protracted selections or numbers. Before the music there was a formal reception in the double parlor, with Mr. and Mrs. Atherton, Mrs. Kinney, Miss Kinney and Mrs. Gilman in the party. The assistants were Mr. and Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Chas. Atherton and Mr. Frank Atherton. Refreshments and a social closed the evening. Among those present were: Senator Culion and ladies, Mrs. S. B. Dole, Harold M. Sewall and Mrs. Sewall, Consul General and Mrs. Haywood, Admiral Miller, Rev. Wm. M. Kincaid and Mrs. Kincaid, H. F. and Mrs. Wichman, Fred J. and Mrs. Lowrey, Jas. A. and Mrs. Kennedy, Miss Halstead, Professor Yarndley, Capt. Berger, Jos. A. and Mrs. Gilman, W. W. and Mrs. Hall, the Misses Sorenson, D. H. and Mrs. Case, Governor Cleghorn, H. S. and Mrs. Townsend, Miss Patch, Mr. Hedemann, Justice Frear, E. A. Sherman, Professor and Mrs. Scott, the Misses Scott, Mrs. H. E. ## Trophy is Ordered.

It Will Be Held October 1-Effort to Wrest Lead From G Company. The Teams to Enter.

Col. Fisher yesterday promulgated the following order to the First Regiment, N. G. H.:

"The third shoot for "The Department Trophy for 1898" will take place at the military rifle range on Saturday, October 1st, 1898. The range will be open at 1:30 and will be closed at 5:30 p. m. The match will be open to teams of twenty (20) men, from each or any of the companies of the First Regiment, N. G. H.

"The different teams must appear and shoot in service uniform with beit; ten rounds per man; 200 yards, off-hand; limited to rifles issued to the First Regiment, N. G. H.; Blunt's manual to govern.

"The trophy to become the property of any company under the conditions laid down in General Order No. 6, dated Department of Foreign Affairs, March 7th, 1898, and promulgated in Regimental Order No. 37, series 1898."

This trophy, which is a handsome shield, is now being prepared. Company G has won it twice and has a good chance of being successful at this time. Companies B, D, F and G will enter teams.

There is a move on foot now to challenge the First New York for a fiftyman shoot at Kakaako butts in the near future. In such an arrangement the visitors would, of course, have the advantage in having 1,300 against 400 men to pick from. However, the N. G. ## One Who Knows the Carolines Writes.

A Religious War Told of in Late Advices - A Hawailan There. Group and Old Glory.

Honolulu, Sept. 19, 1898.

MR. EDITOR: - Having sailed among he Caroline Islands for many years, I am naturally much interested in any items of news from or about them. Occasionally items appear in your paper and I have lately read in a California Shoot for the Department paper that it is proposed to land a cable on one of them. It may interest some of your readers to know that there is news from Ponape, the Spanish headquarters in that region, as late as July 20th. Just previous to that date there had been fighting among the natives between the Catholic and Protestant factions and several men were killed.

Mr. Henry Naukel, a native of the Islands, and who is quite well known in Honolulu, went 'round the island to try to stop the fighting. He was asked ing the natives against the Spanish They told the governor that unless Naukei should be released in two weeks they would go and take him. That would mean another massacre like that of 1887. Another report (letter) from another source, says the Spanish were repulsed in two fights and were in hiding. I believe that is a mistake and that the fights referred to were among the natives themselves, and that the hiding consisted in going into the entrenchments thrown up when news came of the war between Spain and the United States.

The garrison was greatly alarmed when news reached them of Dewey's work at Manila. The gunboat Quires and another vessel, which I think must be one of the regular Spanish steamers running to Manila before the war, were hauled up into the mangrove. All the valuables were taken on shore and entrenchments were dug and manned ready to give a warm reception to the Yankees, who were daily expected. Capt. Milander, an American citi zen, is said to be held a prisoner. He has settled in the Carolines and has a fine schooner there. There are other Americans among the islands whom think would like to see "Old Glory just at this time. It is not likely ther have yet received the peace news in that region. Ponage and all of the Carolines east of it, would like to be under the American flag. They know what it means; but to the westward they know very little about flags until Yap is reached.

Ruk or Hogulu, 400 miles west of Ponape, is the largest island in the group and is the only one which has a spot on it that could not be reached by the guns of a vessel six or eight miles at sea. A thousand vessels could from the sea, yet the Spanish chose Ponape, with its small harbors, for their military colony, and so Ponape is at present the principal island. G.

A LONG FELT WANT.

(From Sydney Evening News.)

Did you ever notice while looking over the columns of your evening paper, what gigantic efforts manufacturers, storekeepers, and proprietary medicine concerns put forth to bring what they vend before the public, to place what they have for sale in the most attractive form, how they exhaust the Anglo-Saxon language, rich as it is in descriptive words and phrases, and how if they score a point every known advantage is taken of it? Did you ever notice that Doan's Backache Kidney Pills is the only remedy that gives you home testimony, local proof, local evidence, Sydney happenings? If you never have, make a note of it. Keep it in view. Bear it in mind. Here is one example:-

Mr. R. Ryan lives at No. 309 Sussex Street, this city. He is a married man and has lived for some years in the locality. A few days since he had this to say about Doan's Backache Kidney

"Six months ago my kidneys became seriously affected, and I was regularly afflicted with backache. I was also troubled with pains in the chest and stomach. My condition gradually grew worse, and though I tried several well known remedies, I found it impossible to get relief. Lately I purchased some of these pills which I have tried with great success. They have completely cured the backache and other pains from which I suffered. I must say these pills are a splendid remedy for kidney complaints, and sufferers cannot do better than give them a trial."

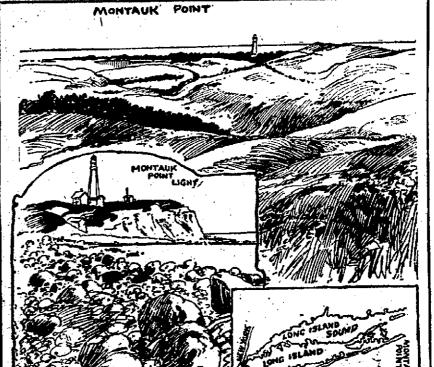

Kidney disease has but few symptoms, but those symptoms are of the utmost importance and must not be neglected.

A little headache, a little dizziness, darkness and puffiness under the eyes, irregular action of the bowels, bad taste in the mouth, dryness of the skin, eruption and pimies on the skin, pale or sallow complexions, specks before the eyes, coldness of the feet or legs, dimness of vision, all point to either disease or inactivity of the kidneys. Nature is signalling to YOU. There is DANGER ahead.

DOAN'S Backache Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers, for 50c. per box. or six boxes for $2.50, or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Ltd., Honolulu, agents for

DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT

The principle that territorial officers should be appointed from the body of residents in the territory was not generally observed until President Cleveland adopted it during his first administration. Since that time it has been closely followed. Previous to that time, all of the urgent demands of the residents of the territory that they should be governed by one who was familiar with their condition, were persistently ignored in Washington. Every member of Congress, every member of the Executive branch of the Government was a firm believer in self government, but refused to extend the principle beyond the State limits.

The theory of Government accepted by the people at the time of the adoption of the Constitution has been modified by experience and education.

A hundred years ago, they were guided by their racial and British usages and habits. Suffrage and officeholding were not freely open to the people. They did not permit themseives to elect their own judges, or the President, or the Senators.

There is now a decided change in public sentiment. The people on the average are as competent to determine public questions, as the representatives they elect. The time has passed when the electors are anxiously looking about for wise men, "statesmen," as they are called, men who have made political institutions a study. The average member of Congress is no wiser or better informed than the average of his constituents. If he is, he carefully keeps his opinions to himself, and with his ear close to the ground listens to the "vox populi."

There can be no question that the tendency in America is to broaden the right of the people to directly admininter public affairs, excepting in the government of the cities. Self-government means this. Government by democracy means this. Any government whose character is in its average above the average of the character of the people is not a democratic government. It was the charge made by Thomas Jefferson and his school, that Hamilton and Washington did not trust the people. The present limitations on the direct will of the people, ontained in the Constitution, are in fact suggestions that the people cannot directly govern themselves.

This tendency of the people towards direct rule by themselves is marked growing. It is the outgrowth of the confidence of the Anglo-Saxons to rule themselves without any checks or restraints. But it is also true that the American Anglo-Saxon has less faith now than he had thirty years ago, in the maxim that all people are competent to govern themselves. The conduct of the negro, with the ballot in his hand, has seriously modified the opinions of the Republican party on the subject. So long as the negro used the ballot for the protection of his rights, the ballot in his hands was a safe provision. When he began to use it so that property rights were imperilled, even the Republican party hesitated to strengthen his power at the ballot box in dealing with the Hawarian question, there will appear in Congress, a tendency to broaden direct self-rule by the whites or Anglo-Saxons, and a tendency to restrict it among the other races within the jurisdiction of the United States Even with this prevailing tendency it is not safe to predict with much confidence what Congressional action will be regarding our local affairs One thing may be counted on. There is now a very unsettled public opinion on the subject.

CARE OF THE SOLDIER.

The Press and the corre pondence of the enlisted men no doubt greatly exaggerate the mismanagemen of army affairs except on the battle field. But mismanagement causing discomfort disease and death does exist. Dr Kennedy, a surgeon stationed at Santiago publicly declares that sick men. in their agony through sheer neglect committed suicide. An order issued by the Adjutant General authorizing surgeons to spend 60 cents per day on each man in the hospitals, has been neglected by some of the volunteer sur-REORS or business that demands for its success the best talent, education and training, carries little meaning to the the American who turns his hand to anything, with more or less success. When he does strike his head against the hard, relentless wall of experience, then he becomes indignant and hunts for victims. Everlastingly great as we are as a people, there has been no dispensation especially setting us free from the general rules of conduct. If a land lubber is put in charge of a steel cruiser, his navigation and fighting will not be the best. "If you put a farmer in charge of a hotel filled with a thousand people," said a soldier on the tram-car yesterday, "you can't expect any comfort"

Napoleon had a grovelling way of watching the belly of the soldier. Like the ancient Kanakas, he considered it the source of power. Courage, hope, discipline, steadfastness, health, depends upon it. Even the "god of battles" seems to take the same practical view of it. The Regular knows by experience that the belly does not when empty, or neglected, respond to patriotic addresses, and he prefers a square meal to the inspiration of 'Rally 'Round the Flag."

American officers like to tell us how the French army feeds itself. Every French soldier is a cook in some degree. Experience of a hundred wars quick preparation. In the camp, on abject condition of depravity when, the march and even on the battle field the pot au feu is found. Meats, vegetables and bread in proper proportions cooked together make a most savory dish. Every man knows how to cook it, and lends a hand, if necessary, in cooking it. Even on the march the French soldiers, under every kind of more attractive meal than can be found in many-almost a million-of president McKinley's act of appointing American homes where the art of cookery is not understood. Gen. Sheridan territory. It is well understood that noted the rapidity and ease with which in Fort street, as well as in "Tooley"

When the American people suddenly called an army of 280,000 men into wisest political maxims of the Anglocamp and field, it had its eye on the wicked Spaniards, and not on the kettle, and the belly, and the details which determine life or death. If any best administration is obtained when one had said "learn how to take care the Chief Executive blandly asks them. of men before you put them into un- "if they will take something;" a deusual and dangerous conditions," the lightful method of "fostering demoreply would have been, "ride that man on a rail."

It is said that an unusually large proportion of the men at Camp Mc-Kinley are on the sick list. It is said that balanced food is lacking. A regiment or two near a city of 30,000 inhabitants should be able to command touch with democratic ideas, and arthe best nutriment. What would hapyen if 5,000 men were stationed here? infamy.

The pity of it is, that money and material throughout the country is exhaustless Yet men must suffer hardships, as if they were with Washington in his New Jersey camps. The nation burns its fingers, not at the Spanish fires, but over the hot coals of its own ignorance.

The moral of it is, either keep out of the business of making war, or make a business of preparing for it, as other nations do.

dies through neglect is a human sacrifice offered up by the people to the gods of Ignorance.

RIGHT OF SEARCH.

A correspondent is aggrieved over the statement made in this paper that in spite of the war of 1812, the British did not give up the right of search of policy, as constructed by the engineers American ships.

The extreme partiality of American historians is the cause of this popular error When the terms of peace with Great Britain are discussed, the failure to abandon the right of search is not dwelt upon with emphasis. The children grow up with the belief that the United States obtained all that it demanded.

As late as 1858 American vessels were subjected to that intolerable treatment. Our vessels were repeatedly boarded in the Gulf of Mexico by British craisers During President Buchanan's administration American war ships were ordered to the Cuban waters in order to prevent British war ships from interfering with our merchant marine On April 10, 1859, the Secretary of State addressed a letter to the British Minister in Washington, in which he declared that the United | States would not tolerate this right of search any longer. Although the foregoing treatise by our contemporary, the Star, was undoubtedly intended for the edification of some doomed statesman, at least a thousand miles from this city, there are persons of singularly dense perception who will insist that it refers to the hideons crime of Mr. Dole, in not keeping,"in touch with the boys." The damning defect in his character in refusing to become like Barabbas, "one of the people," justifies this fervent, but rather confused commentary on has ciphered out the best dish and its his behavior. He is certainly in an after being repeatedly solicited to do so, he stubbornly refuses to scratch the backs of the boys. If Mr. Dole had spent less time in the Executive building and more time in that spring of everlasting political wisdom, The Tailor Shop in Fort street, he would not now be so near that dreadful political inconvenience, will get up a better and doom, predicted by our contemporary, and so distressingly accelerated by him to retain the highest office in the the German soldiers prepared their street, the inspiration of patched breeches, incohate trousers, and reconstructed coats, has suggested the Saxon race. Nor has Mr. Dole cultivated that divine fellowship with others of the boys, who believe that the cratic ideas."

If Mr. Dole would prayerfully study and imitate the lives of Tom Platt, Richard Croker and Senator Quay, the most "successful" politicians of the two largest States of the Union, he would at once put himself in kindly rest the close of his political career in American history also furnishes the examples, of two revered statesmen, Henry Clay and Daniel Webster, who, in a similar way, and most unwisely, neglected to get in touch with the boys, refused to enter and consult the oracles abounding in the Tailor Shops, and forgot to ask the other boys to "take something." Both of these statesmen were promptly refused the honors of the Presidency. Even Mr. Gladstone failed to keep in touch with In the meantime, every soldier who the "boys" of London, and was mobbed at the Imperial Institute, with the approval of the "swells." And where, indeed, is his party today?

These illustrious examples, and a hundred others that might also be cited, show how greviously Mr. Dole has fallen by the way. A thousand times better it would have been if he had traveled the turnpike of political of the Earnest Patriots, and daily paid tribute to the Patriots who sit at the toll gate.

THE NIGGER TRASH.

"Why in the name of common sense and racial decency should native Hawalians look to the American negro for example? It is an insult to attempt to compare the two races."-

The Republican party, at whose altar the Bulletin now humbly worships, has placed over one million of negroes on a par, so far as the suffrage is concerned, with the most enlightened citizen of New England. The enlightened citizen does not feel "insulted" because the most ignorant negro equally shares with him in the government of the Great Republic. President Mc-Kinley has given the preference to the negro over the white man, in filling a number of offices. It is an "in- sponsibilities. sult" for the great Republican leader to do this?

The natives, under the wise teachings of the Bulletin, will quickly adopt the "d----d nigger" view of the situation, and share with the whites of the South the sentiment that the Republican party "insulted" them when it gave the negro the vote.

It will be, indeed, a painful effort for the native, under the Bulletin advice, to join the Republican party, which holds the million of votes cast by the "nigger trash." As the Democrattle party of the South quite agrees with the Bulletin on the "d--d nigger" theory, and the gross insult of a comparison, perhaps the Bulletin will strike the Republican flag and hoist the Democratic.

It must be indeed ing "insult" to the natives to compare them with a race that furnished a regiment of soldiers that, according to the Springfield Republican, and other papers, saved the day at the San Juan fight. "Their advance was greeted by wild cheers from the white regiments." Roosevelt's Rough Riders, who would have been exterminated, if it had not been for the superb fighting of these blacks, according to the Washington Post, did not feel "insulted" at being compared with these negroes. But then the Rough Riders were not the natives represented by the Bulletin, and they have much to learn.

THE VETERANS.

For the first time since the close of the Civil war, the Army Veterans have some excuse for regarding the navy and its veterans with friendly jealousy. During that war the honore two branches of the service, owing to game here goes on. the lack of any efficient navy by the Confederates.

The Monitor and the Merrimac engaged in several drawn battles, out of chair. In case of success he will be which the idea of the iron-clad took called upon to do some of the roughest form and shape. The Kearsarge fully riding of his whole career. manned, and well equipped, quickly destroyed the ill manned and ill provided Alabama. Naval warfare in its larger to an alarming and demoralizing exsense did not take place.

But all things come to those who wait. The year '98 brings to the navy its honors, and the army gladly accords them.

It is true that there is some suggestion to the veterans, in the dashing climb of the infantry to the heights of San Juan, of the stubborn ascent of Grant's lines up the slope of Missionto the marvelous steadiness of Pickett's charge across the wheat fields at Gettysburg. But those were great batgrappling with each other. While the Veterans are proud enough of the achievements of the younger generation, because they are proofs of the unlimited "sand" of the enlisted men, no class or body of men, in the country will stand in line more promptly and salute the men of the navy, for the veterans of the army are proud of every act and deed that honors and vindicates the Flag. At the last camplire here these veterans lit their fire upon alien soil, looking wistfully towards the Mainland for the coming sign. The campfire last night was on soil American as effectively and perpetually as that of Bunker's Hill, Plymouth Rock and Yorktown. The boundaries of the expanding State have come down towards the equator, bringing new laws and conditions, and above all vital re-

To the Veterans, however, last night was merely an hour of reminiscence. Have they heard the legend of the Norsemen? It says that the spirits of the dead fighters on sea and on land, waken at the sound of the bugle and drum, and enter into the ranks of the men at war, and pass about the guns, and among the men during the sea fights. The spears pass through their ghosts and do no harm. The sword points meet within the lines of their spiritual bodies, and are not felt. And as new spirits of the dead rise up from field and deck, they guide them to their ghostly resting places.

What a year, indeed, has it been for the visitations of the old navy heroes! Drake and Hawkins, and Nelson, and St. Vincent, Van Tromp and de Kuyter, Perry and Farragut. Thei pia, when Dewey raised the curtain and opened the drama of modern naval warfare. They grouped themselves the guns of the battle ships, any one of which could have blown to pieces in a single assault the combined navies that carried the flags of these dead admirals.

As the camp fire flashed up last night its tongue of flame spoke these words to the Veterans:

"It is the blood of the soldier that makes the General great."

A Citizen Questions the Committee.

at This Time-Difference of Opinion on Governorship.

(Hawailan Star, September 22.)

Editor Star: By the morning paper we see that the A. U. P., through the central committee, is preparing to speak to the Commission. The question naturally arises as to what right such committe has to speak for the party. If correctly reported the committee feel hurt that the Executive Council has not consulted them before making their statement to the Commission, yet appear to think that they are authorized to speak for the party without any expression from the members of such party. A number of years ago certain men were select-P., but nothing was said as to the term of office being for life. In the failure of the party to appoint a new committee it is reasonable to suppose that in any matter of business, such as calling a new convention, the old committee would act, but when it comes to expressing an opinion on new political questions which have arisen years after their appointment, they are taking a good deal on themselves in attempting to speak for the whole party, and any expression which they do make can only be the expression of the number of men who were at the meeting and no more an expression for the whole party than would be that of any other equal number of men.

If this committee is recommending that the appointment for governor be of a man who "has not been iden-tified with local politics," there are many others who would suggest that while they do not care for a local politician, they do most certainly want and hope for a governor who is a local man and acquainted with the requirements of the Islands, as no man who is not local could be. Respectfully. F. J. LOWREY.

FARMS FRUIT

History of a Section of the Coast State-Pasadena and Neighboring Cities in Point.

MR. EDITOR: -We have on numeroous occasions called the attention of this paper to the thousands of acres of uncultivated land in our charming lit- ship was about half way between Hotle valleys in the neighborhood of Honolulu, also the quantity of land on the Island of Oahu held by a few individuals, and it is the honest conviction of those who are disinterested spectators and have a knowledge of the facts that there can be no moral wrong committed in compelling these large land owners either to sell, improve or subdivide their holdings.

The writer being a pioneer of the State of California, remembers well how large tracts of land, known as the Spanish grants, were acquired in the early days of that State by San Francisco capitalists. Large acreage of the very best land in the Southern counties these men came into possession of under foreclosure of mortgage, etc., from the Spanish alcaldes for almost nothing. The mining excitement -being at its height-the population being spare, this condition of affairs was not noticeable until immigration set in on an extensive scale when it was found that the best land in these counties had been largely acquired by individuals and held by wealthy people for speculation. Most of this land acquired remained unimproved. This state of affairs continued for a number of years till finally the people became thoroughly aroused and by wise and peaceful legislation reduced these immense grants, compelling the large land owners to either sell, improve or subdivide their grants, and the beautiful cities of Southern California, Riverside, San Bernardino, Redlands, Pasadena, Alamanda Park, Santa Monica, Sierra Madre, are the results, where millions of dollars of horticultural products aare produced yearly. Having all the facilities why could we not likewise build up a few of these fashionable pleasure and health resorts on the Island of Oahu? We have been a frequent visitor to the Walalua and Waimea valleys and we are satisfied there could be located today a second Pasadena, which had a population of 15,000 wealthy inhabitants. Pasadena was not founded as a town, but developed from a fruit-growing colony, established on a co-operative plan by a company of gentlemen from Indianapolis, Indiana, in 1874. They planted orange and lemon groves, built comfortable homes and in a few years found their settlement attracting wide notice on account of its picturesque surroundings. The shore line of the beautiful Waialua vailey from the point to Waimea river is about sixteen miles, sloping back to a width of half a mile to four miles, embracing probably an area of 20,000 acres or more. Up in the mountains are charming little valleys, which will produce all tropical and semitropical fruits grown in any part of the world. We all know that our choicest oranges are the Waialua. Lemons, limes, pomolo or grape fruit, alligator pears, mangoes, lichee, dates, cocoanuts, bananas and vegetables of all kinds can be produced and there is no reason why we should not have a second Pasadena if the Walalua land was divided into small homesteads from two, five to ten acres, but this can only be done on a co-operative plan. In Sweden they have the Raeffeisen system of Co-operative Agricultural Credit Association to prevent the small land owners from falling into the hands of the money lenders, and they advance money only for the purpose of agricultural benefit and the society sees that the money is expended for the purpose for which the advance was made. This society has a scientist, who visits the small farms once a month and instructs them in new methods of agriculture and procures for them new labor saving machines, better breeds of cattle, etc., etc. Frederick Raeffeisen, a mayor of the town of Flammersfeld, started this system. His object was to rescue the small farmers from the oppressive grip of the money lender, and it has proved a marvelous success.

Baldwin or Ena system of Land Credit a week or at the appointment of the public who might invest in the desity experts will also be arranged. and it would be the saving of the maining at Camp McKinley. #### Tobacco Culture.

W. M. Giffard has some fine tobacco growing at Maunawili, beyond the Pali. W. W. Dimond's experiments are not so far advanced, but appear quite promising. An effort is being made to produce a fine quality of leaf. A failure was made in the first instance. Island tobacco sent to New York by Mr. Dimond was condemned, experts concluding that the fiber was too coarse and the leaf too strong for use in smoking goods. Experimenters are now trying for a more moderate fiber.

Coffee and Bread as a Breakfast for Soldiers.

THE SICK REPORT

Nearly an Entire Company Appeals to a Surgeon-One Drill a Day-Deserter.

Monday morning the Denver Company of Engineers at Camp McKinley was served bread and coffee for breakfast. Most of the company being business men they did not rebel nor fight the cook. Dissatisfaction was great, however, and the seriousness of the wrong was so patent that they could not pass it by unnoticed. Almost the entire command appeared before the battalion surgeon and asked to be placed on the sick report, for the reason that the breakfast served was not sufficient to sustain them for

The surgeon investigated the matter, taking a look at the bread and coffee He agreed with the men and reported all of them sick.

At dinner time the full food allow ance was served. Promptly after eating something like a meal the men reported back to the surgeon and asked to be taken off the sick list for the reason that they had had a "square" meal and were consequently able to do duty. This, also, was granted. In the meantime, however, the facts had reached official ears and since then the Denver men have fared better.

The afternoon drill at Camp McKinley is now omitted. Only the foregreat satisfaction with this change.

Afternoons at Camp McKinley are given over to baseball by the men not on duty. Three or four teams have been organized and will play a series of twelve games. The best men will then be picked to play against one of the town teams. There are some rat- B.'S. This was Captain Nissen's first tling good foot-ball players; also, at the Camp. Most of them are college men. They are expecting to enter the town series of games, which will open in October.

Officials at Camp Otis are anxious to come up with a private of the Colorado recruits whom they have not heard of in two weeks. The man deserted from the Minnesota regiment here about three months ago, did work at the military hospital and was then assigned to the Colorado recruit contingent. One night about two weeks ago he came in town, not to return to camp again. It is supposed that he borrowed citizen's clothes and skipped out to the Coast.

Two of the Seamen Managed to Escape-Last They Saw of Barkentine-The Cargo.

The last mail from the Colonies brought full details of the wreck of the barkentine C. C. Funk on Flinders Island, July 31st. Captain Nissen of the C. C. Funk is well known in this port where he formerly sailed as master of the schooner Mary Winklemann.

The list of the drowned is as follows: Captain and Mrs. Nissen and two children, aged 8 and 5 respectively; A Hansen, chief mate; J. Stump, second mate; Charles Olsen, Peter Neilson, Johansen, Peter Anton, A. voyage to Australia in the C. C. Funk, but he was the commander of other vessels trading to the colonies. He was a fearless and kindly officer, and was much liked aboard.

John Peterson and Albert Krough, able seamen, seem to have been the only survivors from the wreck. They were washed off the deck, when the vessel struck, close to some wreckage on which they were fortunate enough to get and, after a great struggle, reached the shore much bruised. A few moments later the vessel fell sea-ward, and the masts went overboard, taking all with them. Not a body had since been seen. The part of the coast where the survivors landed was fifteen miles away from habitation, and the men were five days before being discovered by a hunter passing through to another district, and soon after a Friday, 7:30-Civil Government, Mr. Business Block on Modern Plans passing cutter was sighted and hailed, and took the men off to the neares place, where they were kindly treated by the islanders.

THE ART OF STRUCTURE.

Text: 1 Cor. 3-10,--"But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon."

I would call your attention, first of all, to the buildings which we have now in this city; in order that we may get a clear idea about our subject.

As we are here in this church, we see the beauty of these walls, we see the strong pillars which sustain these great galleries, we also meet with our eyes the hanging lights, these rows of seats where you now sit, this platform where I am now stading, in other words, we see the beauty of the interfor of this church.

we see on both sides numerous great buildings, which have been built of stone, brick, lumber and other materials. Some of the buildings lift their lofty spires into the air, while their bases are placed on solid foundations.

ings we admire the skill of the carpenters, architects, painters, draughtsmen and masons who helped to build them; but my dear friends, there is another feature in these buildings which we must not forget, and that is the foundation. It was this of which Paul has spoken in the text "Let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon." The first thing that every man must do who builds a house is to make a solld foundation. He first of all digs a hole, according to the size of the building which is to be built, then the hole is filled, not with dirt, but with cemented stones. Of this material, walls should be built of a reasonable thickness and height. These we call the foundations. Upon some of these there. the walls of the buildings should be erected. Others are for the support of the partitions, and which form rooms within themselves, called cellars.

This is the kind of foundations, most of our buildings have. You can find such foundations in the Executive in many others. Some builders have a hot iron burning me. their foundations without cellars, but entirely filled with cemented stone, Bishop Hall and the Museum at the Kamehameha Schools.

Now, you see how strong these stand! And in order to have such medicines of different kinds, and 11. for our buildings, we must call on recommended applications; but noththose who understand the "Art of ing gave me any relief, and I grew Building," such as Architect, Carpenter and Mason. But there are other took I got no sleep night or day. The buildings beside these of which I want pain was so severe I could not lie down argued in Supreme Court yesterday to speak. There are God's buildings, in bed. "Ye are God's buildings," Paul said. And as these buildings in Honolulu need firm and sound foundations, so with ourselves, we need such foundations as will never fail, and so we must go to him who knows how to lay such a foundation.

God is the only being who has all wisdom. He knows that every one, who would build a noble character, must begin it on a firm foundation, and so God sent his only begotten son into this world to be this foundation that whosoever should establish himself on Him, should never fall. If a house be built out of good materials, on a weak foundation, that house not enough strength to resist the earthquakes and storms. That house will sometime fall, and the man who built it will be like unto the foolish man who built his house upon the sand, and the rain descended and the floods came and the winds blew and beat upon that house, and it fell and great was the fall of it.

There are men like this, who do not seem the Lord Jesus, and do not want to be Christians, who have not taken him as their foundation, but have built themselves on the things of this world, and live on those things; these men could not exist long. So, dear friends let us build ourselves on Jesus, for he is our only sure foundation.

But after we have done this, care materials we are to build with. We must build of materials which correspond to Christ. We must select machould not, then our house will soon be roined.

strong, and in order to have them such, we need solid well made materials such as that of the most solid and perfect kind. There are solid Hawallan rocks, and carefully cemented. one fits into its own place, and each one helps to make the whole building strong. And so it is very necessary to have materials equal to that of the foundations.

Since we have Christ as our foundation, then it is our duty to learn the art of building in order to have the best judgment for selecting materials. So I say, go to God, the possessor of all wisdom, and He will tell you what

"Every man's work shall be made manifest, for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire, and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it 'is."

Let every man therefore build himself with the gold of faith, the silver of hope, and the precious stones of love. The man who does this is really a Christian man, he will have a successful life while here, and also win a crown of life in the other world.

Let every one in this audience this morning build upon Christ and His righteousness and build himself unto the likeness of Christ. And he shall be like unto a wise

Speculation on Several of the Ebbs 🕺 🖔 and Flows.

Professor G. H. Darwin, in his fifth lecture in the Lowell Institute course, explained, says the Boston Transcript, the cause of daily high and low tides. When the moon is over any spot on the earth the water is drawn up toward it by the force it exerts, and at the point directly opposite on the other side of the earth the water is also to see whether there could possibly be any virtue in it for so desperate a points on either side of the earth's circumference the ocean is depressed, the moon thus tending to form a spheroid of the waters and giving rise to two high and two low tides in the course of one revolution of the earth.

understand the bi-monthly spring and neap tides, we must take into account also the effect of the sun on the oceans. The force exerted by the sun is twenty-six fifty-ninths as powerful as that of the one moon, and when there is a full moon or a new moon the force of both bodies is acting together, and gives rise to the condition known as spring tides. But! when the moon is half way between new and full, waxing or waning, the force of the sun is acting at right angles to that of the moon. As the sun exerts about half the power of the moon over the tides, the difference begether and in opposition is about as

MAN WANTS $5000

Man Who Had the Bar Privilege-A Hearing On-Supreme Court Incidents - Honored Callers.

In the matter of the estate of the late H. Reimenschneider, W. O. Smith, administrator, has filed his account, charging $2,150.25 and crediting $2,214. A petition for discharge is also filed. George R. Carter has filed an inventory of the estate of the late E. A. Jones, showing assets $60,845.85 and liabilitles $1,750, leaving a balance of $59,095.85. First Lieut. Frank S. Brittain, of the United States Engineers at Camp Mc-Kinley, has been admitted to practice law in the courts of Hawaii. Prior to coming to Honolulu he was a member of the law firm of Shortridge, Beatty & Shortridge, San Francisco. Lieut. Brittain is a native of Philadelphia.

He is an army judge advocate. Cecil Brown sat on the Supreme Court bench yesterday in place of Justice Frear. The case of Kaimana vs. J. H. Kaumanu, malicious prosecution, was argued. About 3:30 yesterday afternoon Senator Cullom, Mr. Hitt, President Dole and Justice Frear, of the Commission, visited the Supreme Court in a body. The Court took a recess of five minutes to meet the visitors. Senator Cuilom had quite a long informal chat with the Chief Justice.

Russell Colegrove was on the witness stand in Judge Perry's court all of yesterday in his damage case against Capt. Milnor of the steamer Columbia. He gave the particulars of his trouble with the master on the voyage from Tacoma to Hilo. As several other witnesses are to be called the case will probably be on the remainder of the week.

There was a coincidence in Supreme Court yesterday which was noted by several. Three ex-Attorneys General of Hawaii were on the bench in the persons of Justices Judd, Whiting and Cecil Brown. Ex-Attorney General Creighton presented the case and it was defended by Deputy Attorney General Dole for the Attorney General's department.

Another libel was filed late yesterday against the steamer Columbia, H. Johnston is the complainant and he wants $2,000 damages. In his petition Seattle the privilege of supplying liqorders of Capt. Milnor, as the result of G. W. Chaifant, Edwin Eddesin, Mrs. against the Columbia, which is the fourth, was issued last night. Magoon and McClanahan are attorneys for petitioner.

ALGAROBA.

an Island Tree.

The N Y. Sun in an article titled fodder in tree tops," gives some account of the algaroba (kiawe).

"Priests of the French mission were the introducers, they having become acquainted with its value in Algeria. As its name shows, it is the Carob tree of the "Arabian Nights," the source of most people's knowledge of things Arabic. The tree grows most luxuriantly in most Hawaiian soils and bears continuously the year around. This is a matter of particular importance, for it is the fruit which is of value. The tree grows to the height attained by large maples, and branches luxuriantly so as to shade a considerable area, and, as the leaves are both abundant and large, there is formed a protection against the heat which stock appreciate. The fruit is a large fleshy pod filled with beans the size of a horse chestnut. It is upon the pods and the beans that cattle feed. This fodder is so satisfying that for long periods cattle are fed on nothing else and reach market in prime condition."

The writer of the article does not appear to be aware of the fact that this tree is nearly identical with the mesquite tree which grows over a large portion of Texas and Mexico The beans are used for human food especially in Mexico
